

NEULAND LABORATORIES LIMITED

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION POLICY

1. Preamble

Neuland Laboratories Limited (“The Company”) is committed to upholding the highest ethical and legal conduct in fulfilling its responsibilities and recognizes that related party transactions can present a risk of actual or apparent conflicts of interest of the related parties with the interest of the Company and may raise questions about whether such transactions are fair and on arm’s length basis.

This policy is to regulate transactions between the Company and its Related Parties by reviewing and approving Material Related Party Transactions bearing in mind the potential or actual conflicts of interest that may arise consequent upon the transaction entered into by the Company and the whether the said transactions are consistent with the Company’s and its shareholder’s interest. The Company has been complying with various laws and regulations in this regard so far and ensured that such transactions are in the best interest of the company and shareholders.

The Audit Committee of the Company shall review this Policy on an annual basis and may suggest changes, if required, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of the Company.

This Policy supersedes the earlier Policy on Related Party Transaction and shall be effective from April 1, 2022.

2. Purpose

The SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“as amended from time to time (“SEBI Listing Regulations”) requires the Company to formulate, inter alia, a policy on materiality of related party transactions pertaining to related parties, material listed subsidiaries. This Policy is framed as per requirement of SEBI Listing Regulations entered by the Company with the Stock Exchanges and intended to ensure the proper approval and reporting of transactions between the Company and its Related Parties. Such transactions are appropriate only if they are in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders. The Company is required to disclose each year in the Financial Statements certain transactions between the Company and Related Parties as well as policies concerning transactions with Related Parties.

4. Policy

All Related Party Transactions (“RPT”) shall be referred for prior approval of the Audit Committee, except as stated otherwise, in accordance with this Policy.

The Audit Committee, while granting an approval of a proposed RPT, shall ensure that such RPT is in the best interest of the Company and adheres to this Policy. All relevant facts and circumstances available, including but not limited to the following, shall be considered:

- a. The benefits to the Company by entering into such RPT;
- b. The extent of the Related Party's interest;
- c. The availability of other sources of comparable products or services;
- d. The extent to which the terms of the RPTs are less favourable than terms generally available in non-related transactions under like circumstances;
- e. The aggregate value of the RPT; and
- f. The impact on a Director's independence if the RPT is entered into with an Independent Director or a relative of such Director.

It shall be the responsibility of the Board to monitor and manage potential conflicts of interest of management, board members and shareholders, including abuse in Related Party Transactions.

The Independent Directors of the Company shall pay sufficient attention and ensure that adequate deliberations are held before approving related party transactions and assure themselves that the same are in the interest of the Company.

Where prior approval of the shareholders is required under the SEBI Listing Regulations or Companies Act, 2013, the shareholders shall be provided the details as set out under SEBI Listing Regulations.

This Policy will operate within the framework of the Companies Act 2013, rules thereunder and the SEBI Listing Regulations, as amended from time to time.

5. Identification of Potential Related Party Transactions

Each of the Directors and Key Managerial Personnel is responsible for providing notice to the Audit Committee of any potential Related Party Transaction involving him or her or his or her Relative, including any additional information about the transaction that the Board/Audit Committee may reasonably request. Audit Committee will determine whether the transaction does, in fact, constitute a Related Party Transaction requiring prior approval in compliance with this policy.

The Company strongly prefers to receive such notice of any potential Related Party Transaction well in advance so that the Audit Committee has adequate time to obtain and review information about the proposed transaction.

6. Prohibitions related to Related Party Transactions

All Related Party Transactions shall require prior approval of Audit Committee. Further, all Material Related Party Transactions and subsequent Material Modifications as defined by the Audit Committee shall require approval of the shareholders through resolution and no Related Party shall vote to approve such resolution.

7. Review and Approval of Related Party Transactions

Potential Related Party Transactions will be discussed at the next meeting of Audit Committee for review and prior approval. Any member of the Committee who has a potential interest in any Related Party Transaction will recuse himself or herself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the Related Party Transaction.

To review a Related Party Transaction, the Committee will be provided with all relevant material information of the Related Party Transaction, including the terms of the transaction, the business purpose of the transaction, the benefits to the Company and to the Related Party, and any other relevant matters. In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction, the Committee will consider the following factors, among others, to the extent relevant to the Related Party Transaction:

- Whether the terms of the Related Party Transaction are fair and on arm's length basis to the Company and would apply on the same basis if the transaction did not involve a Related Party;
- Whether there are any compelling business reasons for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction and the nature of alternative transactions, if any;
- Whether the Related Party Transaction would affect the independence of any independent director;
- Whether the proposed transaction includes any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of or in connection with the proposed transaction;
- Whether the Company was notified about the Related Party Transaction before its commencement and if not, why pre-approval was not sought and whether subsequent ratification is allowed and would be detrimental to the Company; and
- Whether the Related Party Transaction would present an improper conflict of interest for any director or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the director, Executive Officer or other Related Party, the direct or indirect nature of the director's, Key Managerial Personnel's or other Related Party's interest in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship and any other factors the Board/Committee deems relevant.

The Audit committee may grant omnibus approval for related party transactions proposed to be entered into by the Company subject to fulfilment of the afore-mentioned criteria for recurring transactions, subject to the value of such transactions not exceeding One Crore rupees. The omnibus approval shall specify:

- the name(s) of the related party, nature of transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transactions that shall be entered into,
- the indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any; and
- such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit:

The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself regarding the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the Company. Such Omnibus approvals shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approvals after the expiry of one year.

The Audit Committee shall review, at least on a quarterly basis, the details of related party transactions entered by the listed entity pursuant to each of the omnibus approvals given.

If the Committee determines that a Related Party Transaction should be brought before the Board, or if the Board in any case elects to review any such matter or it is mandatory under any law for Board to approve the Related Party Transaction, then the consideration set forth above shall apply to the Board's review and approval of the matter, with such modification as may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances.

8. Related Party Transactions not approved under this Policy

In the event the Directors become aware of a Related Party Transaction with a Related Party that has not been approved under this Policy prior to its consummation, the matter shall be reviewed by the Committee. The Committee shall consider all of the relevant facts and circumstances regarding the Related Party Transaction, and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification, revision or termination of the Related Party Transaction. The Committee shall also examine the facts and circumstances pertaining to the failure of reporting such Related Party Transaction to the Committee under this Policy and shall take any such action it deems appropriate.

In any case, where the Committee determines not to ratify a Related Party Transaction that has been commenced without approval, the Committee, as appropriate, may direct additional actions including, but not limited to, immediate discontinuation or rescission of the transaction. In connection with any review of a Related Party Transaction, the Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

9. Disclosure requirements

- i. Related Party Transactions shall be disclosed in Board's Report, as may be stipulated under the Act and / or SEBI Listing Regulations.
- ii. Details of Related party Transactions shall be submitted to the stock exchanges in the prescribed format from time to time and publish the same on the Company's website, as stipulated under SEBI Listing Regulations and / or the Act
- iii. The Company shall disclose the Policy on its website and provide link of the same in the Annual Report or as may be stipulated under the extant laws / regulations.

10. Amendments

Any statutory amendment in SEBI Listing Regulations and / or Companies Act, 2013 and any other applicable laws / regulations, if any, shall be deemed to be included in the Policy and the Company shall be governed by it. Pursuant to any such amendment, the Company Secretary, in consultation with the Audit Committee Chairman, may carry out the necessary changes to this Policy, as may be required.
